Origin of Word "Dope."

New York's recent roof garden murder gave prominence to the term "dope fiend." What is the origin of "dope?" "Dope" is an English dialect word for a simoleon, but probably the "dope" in this case is another one altogether, derived from the "doping" of horses, and implying that the man was the victim of a drug habit. In this country "dope" has long signified any thick liquid of semi-liquid, used as food or as a lubricant. The Scientific American says that it once meant "a preparation of pitch, tallow and other ingredients, which, being applied to the bottom of the shoe, enables the wearer to glide lightly over the snow softened by the rays of the sun." It is believed to come from the Dutch "doop," dripping, or paste, which is from the verb meaning to dip.Piles quickly and positively cured with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. It's made for Piles alone—and it does the work surely and with satisfaction. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large, Nickel and moist, that dog is not sick. A feverish dry nose means sickness with a dog.

And so with the human lips. Dry, cracked and colorless lips mean feverishness, and are as well ill appearing. To have beautiful, pink, velvet-like lips, apply at bedtime a coating of Dr. Shoop's Green Salve. It will soften and heal any skin ailment. Get a free, trial box, at MARKET REPORT.

Special to the Garland Globe:—

Kansas City Stock Yards, Oct. 22, 1906.—There is a big reduction in cattle receipts today as compared with recent Monday's, 17,000 head here today. The market ruled steady all of last week, and is steady to strong today. Grass steers from Kansas and Oklahoma pastures are getting pretty well run out, resulting in a shortage and packers are paying 25 to 40 cents more for them now than two weeks ago. This condition is encourageing to Colorado and other Western shippers, from which country 75% of the stuff still remains to be moved. Country buyers are taking hold freely, and prices on that class remain firm. Very few cattle from the range are here today, and not many are expected this week, and the market should be good balance of the week. Colorado, Utah, New Mexico and Western Texas all had lots of cattle here last week, stockers selling from $3.00 to $3.75, feeders $3.50 to $4.00 Colorado and Utah killing steers sold at $3.65 to $4.30, cows $2.70 to $3.35, heifers up to $3.75, bulls $2.15 to $2.60. New Mexico and panhandle cows sell at $2.40 to $3.00, heifers $3.25, killing steers up to $3.85, bulls $2.00 to $2.40, heavy calves $3.00 to $3.90, canners and wet cows $1.85 to $2.
25.The sheep run was liberal last week, 49,000 head, market 15 to 25 cts. higher, lambs selling at $7.15 to $7.60. Since Thursday there has been a reaction in the market, as packers claimed this market was too high as compared with Eastern points. Run is 9,000 today, lambs selling at $6.90 to $7.25, yearlings $5.25 to $5.75, wethers $5.00 to $5.25, ewes $4.75 to $5.10. A large share of the supply runs to feeding stock, which finds ready sale, lambs at $5.30 to $6.15, wethers and breeding ewes $4.80 to $5.25. The end of the range season is in sight, and supplies are likely to be short for awhile.J. A. Rickart, L. S. Correspondent.Mr and Mrs G S Mowry are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine daughter that came to their home last Sunday afternoon. This is their first daughter and she is certainly a welcome guest. Mother and babe doing nicely.

In Time of Peace.

In the first months of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather."
The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men.
The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency.
Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by Riter Bros Drug Store.
